

MYSTERY DEEPENS IN INVESTIGATIONS ON MOUNT'S DEATH

Not Improbable Now That Boy Committed Suicide

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 4.—The mystery surrounding the death of Leighton Mount, Northwestern University student whose skeleton was found beneath a pier near the lake at Evanston Monday, was deepened today by the questioning in the state's attorney's office of more than a hundred undergraduates.

After insisting for days that Mount, who disappeared in September, 1921, after taking part in a class rush, had met his death as a result of hazing and that his body had been hidden by fellow students, officials tonight said that the theory that he committed suicide "does not seem so improbable as it did at first."

That a number of times during the summer of 1921 Mount had told her he was dissatisfied with conditions of his life and had a "good notion to do away with himself," was the testimony of Miss Doris Fuchs, a friend of the dead student. The girl testified that Mount had told her the night he disappeared that the class rush with its attending excitement might give him an opportunity to "do away with himself. That night he sent me a note in which he warned me to keep as quiet as a snail," she said.

Mrs. J. L. Mount, mother of the dead youth, said that Miss Fuchs had told her of these conversations with her son at the time of his disappearance but added that in her worry she probably did not give the words a great deal of attention. Leighton talked much at all times of his life, his future and his conditions," the mother said, "and possibly he may even have talked about killing himself, but we paid no attention to him."

A new angle to the investigation was uncovered when evidence was found that there was no hole in the planking of the pier where the skeleton was found by a boy playing "pirate" until three months after the student's disappearance. O. L. Olson, the contractor who built the pier, said that he had inspected it in December 1921, and that at that time there was no hole thru which a body could have been dragged to concealment. Similar testimony was given by a life guard at a near-by beach.

Arthur Persinger, who was a sophomore at the time, testified that he had taken part in the class rush and had been ducked in the lake and tied to a pier a few hours before Mount disappeared. The dead student was a freshman and was battling the sophomores. Everett B. Fox testified that he led the band of freshmen that tied Persinger to the pier.

"Persinger took it in good sport," said Fox, "and we heard no more about it—there was no thought of reprisals." He added the students who helped him tie Persinger were Baron Koon and Spencer Willis, both of whom are now at the university and have been subpoenaed for their testimony tomorrow.

John Tomlinson, son of an Evanston banker and believed to have been one of the last persons to have seen Mount alive, testified that he knew Mount well, was with him the night of the class rush but did not see him hazed. He said he had left Mount after the rush was over about three o'clock that morning.

A search was ordered for J. Allen Mills, former student at the university and now said to be somewhere in the west. Mills was one of the leaders in the rush. It was said. He was last heard of in Wyoming.

CUT DOWNS OLD LANDMARK FRIDAY

Another old landmark disappeared from Jacksonville Friday morning, when workmen cut down the old catalpa tree that has stood for so many years in front of the Moore blacksmith shop in the 200 block of North Sandy street. The age of the tree, which is over three feet in diameter at the base, could not be determined, but it is beyond the recollection of any known living inhabitant. One gentleman who has reached the age of seventy, stated that the tree seemed about as large, when he first remembered it, as it does now.

The catalpa is sometimes called the Indian cigar tree, and several old residents recalled that they obtained their first smokes from this tree, but failed to say whether the instruments of chastisement were taken from the same source.

MISSIONARY TELLS STORY OF CAPTURE BY CHINESE BANDITS

Rev. Anton Lundeen Talks Before Lutheran Synod

(By The Associated Press)

MANN, ILL., May 4.—How the American and other governments in ultimatum to China threatened to send troops to force the release of their citizens from bandits was told delegates to Augustana Lutheran Synod here tonight by Rev. Anton Lundeen, returned missionary.

Mr. Lundeen told of his experiences during 58 days captivity by Chinese robbers after his seizure last October when the Lutheran mission compound at Juchow, Honan, China was ransacked. Together with another missionary there he held hostages while the rebel army of 15,000 marched through the provinces of Honan and Anhui burning, killing and pillaging.

Two women missionaries were searched and forced to submit to minor indignities but were released unharmed at once. The mission was ransacked and everything of value carried away. For almost two months the robbers, disciplined by the revolvers of the leaders, lived off the country, making a thousand mile circuit. The captives were forced to walk many miles a day and finally the army which had started out as infantry stole enough horses to become cavalry. At night the prisoners covered themselves with their wet saddle blankets. They suffered from influenza and dysentery due to the poor and insufficient food.

The sole object of the bandits in carrying off the foreigners seems to have been the belief that these would intercede with them with the Chinese government.

When outside governments issued their ultimatums the affair was settled by China receiving into her regular army the robber leaders and thousands of their followers.

CONGRATULATIONS CONTINUE TO POUR IN

(By The Associated Press)

SAN DIEGO, Calif., May 4.—While hundreds of telegrams of congratulations continued to pour on them from all parts of the United States, the United States congressmen and senators are planning to honor them, Lieutenants Oakley Kelly and John A. MacReady today rested on their laurels. MacReady was at the home of his parents in Los Angeles and Kelly with friends here.

The fliers received and sent interesting telegrams. One from Earl Meeker of New York City was as follows:

Congratulations on your wonderful flight, with which beats my time made 77 years ago by my team at two miles an hour, five months on the way. Happy to see in my 93rd year so great a transformation in methods of travel. Ready to go with you next time.

The telegram sent by MacReady and Kelly to Colonel Franklin R. Kenney, former executive of the air service, who presented to them $5,000 won on a wager that the fliers would successfully fly from New York to San Diego following.

"To do anything that needs doing is a soldier's plain duty brings victory to a friend it makes it a pleasure. With a grateful acceptance of your splendid gift there is a satisfaction and a knowledge that it pays to bet on the army air service."

Col. Kenney telegraphed the $5,000 this morning.

Both airmen will rest until May 13, when they will fly to Los Angeles to permit the residents of that city to see the ship that they have won world records to its credit and to honor the pilots. The plane is under guard at Rockwell Field awaiting the return of the aviators when the remaining gas water and oil supply will be checked and an official report sent to the war department.

MISS PUBL CLOSE SECOND TEACHING TERM

Miss Margaret Puhl of Franklin closed her second successful term at school at Jordanville, Thursday, with an all-day picnic on the school lawn.

At noon a bountiful picnic dinner was served, which was much enjoyed by the pupils and patrons of the school. There were about sixty present. Various games and contests made up the program for the afternoon.

Of Miss Puhl's thirty pupils, two were neither absent nor tardy during the term. They were Helen and Irene Newell. Miss Puhl has been re-employed to teach the coming term at the Jordanville school.

RUM RUNNERS ARE TURNING TO AIR TO GET IN GOODS

Also Trying to use Submarine Channels Officials Say

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 4.—Cut off from surface communication with the Atlantic rum fleet by a concerted drive of prohibition enforcement arms, the liquor rum running fraternity have turned to air and submarine channels in an effort to get the contraband ashore. Lieutenant Commander Camden of the coast guard cutter Seneca, disclosed tonight when he came in off the rum patrol.

Instead of fleeing this port as had been reported last night, the rum fleet had merely moved a little further south of Sandy Hook, and taken up more open formation, and late last night and early this morning efforts to get their cargoes ashore were redoubled.

The Seneca had just located the British yacht Istar off Jones Inlet, commander Camden said, when a big gray seaplane swooped down beside the rum runner and two of the fliers clambered aboard. The Seneca put on full speed toward the seaplane, but before she arrived a smaller plane which had been circling high overhead, swooped down signaling the other. The gray plane's occupants tumbled back aboard and took the air before the Seneca arrived.

A short time later the Seneca sighted two boats, ostensibly lobster fishermen, alongside another unit of the rum fleet. She steamed toward them and the lobster boats fled, leaving behind submerged boxes, which were believed to be cases of liquor which were to be towed ashore under water.

The Seneca dropped a shot across the lobster men's bows and drew up alongside as the craft came to a sudden halt. The five occupants were brought to the customs house here and arraigned on charges of being alongside, and boarding a foreign vessel, the Independence. This, it was declared, was the equivalent of entering into foreign trade without clearance papers.

All admitted they had been on board the Independence, but said the skipper of the rum runner had invited them aboard "for tea."

NOTED DANCER WANTS TO GET JEWELS BACK

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 4.—Irene Castle Tremaine, dancer, planned with Magistrate Oberweiger today to be lenient and not to impose a heavy fine for damages against James Comper, jewelry broker, whom she charged with having appropriated a pearl necklace valued at $7,000 she gave him to sell.

"Maybe you'd like to bail him out yourself?" remarked the magistrate, "You've done everything else for him."

"No I don't want to do that, but I should like to get my jewels back," said the dancer, as she jettied the chocolate colored pompadour she was carrying in her arms. She wore a band of pearls and diamonds on her left ankle and appeared bored with the proceedings, dabbing a powder puff on her nose from time to time.

Comper counsel said that if he could get light bail his client would endeavor to return the pearls which he had pawned. Bail was fixed at $2,500 after the district attorney's office had asked for $10,000.

MISS PUBL CLOSE ARRANGING FOR SLEEPING QUARTERS

Elbert Brasel, who is in charge of arrangements for the entertainment of the United States war delegates during the coming week, reports that accommodations are already arranged for approximately five hundred and fifty people, as to sleeping quarters, and that there will be sufficient dining room space for six hundred and fifty guests.

Reservations have already been made by several parties at this early day which would seem to indicate that there will be a record attendance, probably on account of the entertainment being held down state, making it a much shorter trip than to the vicinity of Chicago, where most of the engagements have been previously held.

FIELD MISSIONARY IS VISITING HERE

The Reverend Henry S. Ruth, field missionary of the Methodist mission of Chicago, is visiting in Jacksonville and renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Ruthford graduated from the school for the Deaf twenty-seven years ago, and aside from short visits here during reunions, has never had opportunity to greet many of his old friends, up to this time. Needless to say he is enjoying himself immensely while here.

BERLIN-LONDON PLANE CRASHES

This plane was on a practice flight for the opening of the Berlin-London passenger service when it crashed at Tempelhof, Field, Berlin. It was completely wrecked.

Rob Two Banks In Town at Same Time

(By The Associated Press)

BUCKNER, Mo., May 4.—The days Jesse James and his gang were recalled here today when 50 unmasked bandits raided the two banks of Buckner simultaneously and escaped in a motor car with approximately $6,000 in cash and $25,000 in liberty bonds, of which $23,500 were registered. Posses of deputy county marshals and citizens tonight were scouring the highways for the bandits.

The James boys staged many daring robberies in their time, but so far as the records show they never attempted to hold up two banks in the same town at the same time. Buckner is 22 miles northeast of Kansas City and has a population of 400.

Only a few persons were on the streets of Buckner when the bandits drove up to the main business corner of the town in a black touring car shortly before noon. The robberies were staged so quickly and quietly that few realized they were taking place. Not a shot was fired.

Stopping their car at the curb near the bank of Buckner, four bandits got out, two going into the bank of Buckner and two into the Farmers Bank which is on the opposite corner. The fifth bandit remained at the wheel.

Order Officers in Vault
J. H. Botts, assistant cashier, was alone when the two bandits entered the Bank of Buckner. One bandit pointed a revolver at Botts and forced him to hold up his hands and face the wall. Miss

ASSINBOINE IS AGAIN MENACING MANITOBA TOWN

(By The Associated Press)

WINNIPEG, May 4.—The flood menace appeared again today with another rise of the Assiniboine river, forcing residents in some sections of Brandon to leave their homes. Highways leading into the city from the north were under water.

The walls of the Belcourt dike seven miles east of St. Eustache, broke from the pressure caused by the heavy influx of water and thousands of acres of farm land were submerged, in some spots eight feet deep. Farmers were forced to flee.

Farm roads adjoining Irberville home of the Hutterite colony also were flooded by another overflow from Mill creek.

PROSECUTOR OF HIGH CHURCHMAN MADE ARCHBISHOP

(By The Associated Press)

MOSCOW, May 4.—Father Vedensky, who yesterday acted as prosecutor in the church trial which resulted in the unfrocking of former Patriarch Tikhon today was invested by the all-Russian church conclave with the dignity of archbishop of Moscow. This extraordinary elevation from ordinary priesthood was made on motion of the presidium in recognition of Vedensky's service in the Tikhon case, but it was carried over some opposition and amid cries of "no no."

The conclave tonight decided to abolish all sacred relics, declaring they but serve to foster superstition.

As a result of the conclave's decision that bishops may marry a group of 35 of these dignitaries has presented a petition asking that they be allowed to remain single. Previously bishops were chosen only from celibate monks.

The conclave also has ruled that ordinary priests may marry a second time, as opposed to the previous rule that they could be married before ordination but could not re-marry.

SPEAKS IN INTEREST OF MISSIONARY WORK

Rex Hopper, representative of Student Volunteer Movement of Y. M. C. A. of New York City gave an interesting talk on "The Possibilities in the Missionary Field" at Jones' chapel yesterday morning.

Mr. Hopper is a graduate of Butler college and since taking up missionary work has met with much success and encouragement. His work is confined mostly with students, showing the many possibilities in the missionary field. He had several personal conferences with students who were especially interested.

A party was given in honor of Mr. Hopper by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Thursday night. He also gave a talk at the Illinois Woman's college yesterday afternoon.

NEW YORK WOMEN PROTEST AGAINST HIGH SUGAR PRICES

Seventy-Two in Parade to City Hall; 65,000 Announced

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 4.—Seventy-two instead of an announced 65,000 women paraded to city hall today in protest against the high price of sugar as prices of raw sugar futures recovered from yesterday's slump and climbed from 41 to 56 points during the day's trading.

The protest parade led by Mrs. Louis Reed Welzimer, deputy commissioner of public markets, and leader of the local buyer's strike movement, was headed by a squad of mounted police and the police band of fifty men, and included 35 merchants and 36 women in six motor cars.

At the city hall the paraders were joined by about 50 men and 150 more women. Mrs. Welzimer urged the women to support the federal government's injunction against the sugar interests. She said she had been informed directly by federal agents that the women's sugar boycott movement had been the direct cause of the drop in sugar future prices. The local movement, she added included 5,000 active workers and 1,000,000 women supporters.

Mayor Hylan pledged the support of the city administration to the boycott.

In today's trading, reports of a better demand for Cuban sugar on active covering and renewed buying by trade interests changed yesterday's losses of from 30 to 40 points in July and September sugar futures to gains of 11 to 16 points.

France was reported to have bought 5,000 tons of raw sugar in Cuba at from 5.80 to 5.85 cents which, it was stated, would amount to nearly six cents freight paid in New York.

Cable advices received by local refiners from Havana indicated that prominent Cubans were considerably disturbed over the boycott and were considering a retaliatory boycott of American manufacturers in favor of French and British.

A statement issued by the federal sugar refining company declared that the tariff was responsible for about 20 percent in the increase in the price of sugar.

CONFESS TO MURDER OF OKLAHOMA FAMILY

(By The Associated Press)

IDABEL, OKLAHOMA, May 4.—The mystery surrounding the brutal killing of five members of the family of T. H. Hansell, a farmer near Harwath, Okla., on night April 26 was cleared up here today when the three slayers made a clean breast of the affair.

The killings were planned and executed by John W. Pope, estranged husband of Hansell's daughter, Lydia. He was aided by his 19 year old son, John, product of a former marriage, and "Red" Harvey, a 21 year old youth.

Young Pope and Harvey pleaded guilty to charges of murder. They will be sentenced later in district court. The elder Pope, who is about 41 years old, calmly admitted in justice court this afternoon at his preliminary hearing a charge of murder that he killed his wife. He was bound over to the district court without bond and is expected to plead guilty.

JOHN W. RAINEY PASSED AWAY IN CHICAGO FRIDAY

Congressman from Fourth Illinois District is Dead

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 4.—John W. Rainey, congressman from the fourth Illinois district, died in a hospital here Friday of pneumonia. Early today reports at the hospital indicated that he was improving and his death was a shock to his friends.

Representative Rainey was born in Chicago December 21, 1880, and attended the public schools here and the Kent College of law. He practiced law until 1910 and for two years was assistant to the judge of the Cook county probate court. In 1912 he was elected clerk of the circuit court.

He was elected to congress in 1918 to fill a vacancy from the fourth Illinois district and was re-elected to the sixty-sixth and sixty-seventh congresses. His last election was contested by his republican opponent, John Colomberski, but the house elected Rainey.

In 1919 Mr. Rainey urged repeal of the volstead act and proposed to use a $500,000,000 liquor tax to pay the national soldiers bonus. Again in 1920 he urged passage of the soldiers bonus.

Mr. Rainey was married in 1914 to Miss Ethel McMahon. They had one child, Margaret, who with her mother, survives. About two weeks ago, Representative Rainey was called home from Washington by the illness of Margaret, who was in a serious condition from the effects of pneumonia. A few days later he contracted pneumonia. For a time his life was despaired of but for the last week or so hospital attendants stated he seemed to be recovering.

GREAT LEGAL BATTLE EXPECTED IN CHICAGO

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Ill., May 4.—Re-indictment by a federal grand jury today of the alleged principles in what the government termed a $400,000 liquor conspiracy, was said tonight to be preliminary to a foregathering of some of the country's best legal talent to thresh out the relation of one constitutional amendment to another.

Some of the men re-indicted today were acquitted in a trial before federal judge James H. Wilkerson last December and three were convicted, two of the latter being given nearly three years.

The constitutional amendment involved are the fifth, providing no one shall be tried for a crime of which he has once been acquitted and the prohibition agents allege the liquor rings is known as the Weiss-Fabrizi-Van Natta group. Their attorneys maintain that they have already been tried for the alleged offense. Government attorneys in the new indictments based on the same alleged overt acts, charge conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws through illegal transportation, purchase and sale of liquor. In the original indictments charge of having false permits was made the main issue and federal officials maintain the new indictments do not involve an interpretation of the fifth amendment in relation to the eighteenth.

Among those indicted are James Van Natta, police lieutenant; Carl M. Behrens, banker; Harold M. Stamps, former prohibition agent; Joseph Hoss, Milton Fox, a druggist and Hugo Weiss, Robert Fabrizi and Edward Groeninger, the latter three convicted at the December trial. Weiss and Fabrizi were later granted new trials.

GETS FOUR YEARS FOR KILLING UMPIRE

(By The Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, MO., May 4.—Charles Woolsey, 17 years old, charged with killing Charles F. Cook, an umpire, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in circuit court at Clayton, St. Louis county tonight, and was sentenced to four years in the boys' reformatory at Booneville, Missouri.

Jankowski's parents perished from want, hunger, in Lithuania, while the compensation payments due from the United States government on the account of their son's service accumulated at Washington. It was not known whether the government would pay this money to the heirs, but this has not been made known to the estate. Walter Jankowski of this city and Raymond, also an American citizen, and a younger sister in Lithuania survive and are the claimants of the estate.

The next step is the appointment of an administrator for the Jankowski estate, a matter which must be handled by the local Red Cross office. The estate, of course, exists in Lithuania where the parents died and must be administered according to the laws of that country. Mrs. Sullivan, the Red Cross secretary, will take up the matter with the Lithuanian consul in Chicago, and perhaps later with the American consul in Lithuania, and will in the course of a few months secure the appointment of an administrator to whom the government will pay the accrued compensation.

BRUNDAGE SEEKING AID OF DEMOCRATS IN SMALL FIGHT

Asks Leader of Democrats to Oppose Governor's Veto

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 4.—A conference, hailed in political circles as forecasting far-reaching results in legislative and political affairs in Illinois, was held today between Edward J. Brundage, attorney general of the state, and George E. Brennan, leader of the Illinois democrats.

The object of the conference, according to rumors, was to effect a bi-partisan combination to support the full appropriation for the attorney general, more than half of which was vetoed yesterday by the governor. In return it was said, the Brundage republican faction was to support legislation desired by the new democratic administration in Chicago.

Mr. Brundage was assured, according to politicians, that no organized effort would be made by the democrats to stop the democratic members of the legislature who feel friendly to the attorney general from supporting the attempt to pass the appropriation over Governor Smith's veto. After emerging from the conference in the attorney general's office, Mr. Brennan said:

"The plan to swing the democratic organization to either side in this controversy is out of the question. It should not have been suggested in the first place. As I view the matter personally, it is a matter for each member of the legislature to settle with himself."

"Both Mr. Brundage and Mr. Small have friends in the assembly. I assume that some democrats, particularly those out in the state, will support the governor's veto, while others will stand with attorney general Brundage."

"Of course, if there are items that seem to be needed for the enforcement of law and order, it is a natural assumption that members of the legislature will vote to carry out that program, but as to the democratic organization going to the front for either faction in the republican party of this state, that is out of the question."

Mr. Brundage said that Mr. Brennan had told that the democratic party in the state, as a party, could not be expected to take a hand in the controversy. "I did ask him to lend a hand if he could," he said "not for me, personally, but in the interests of law enforcement."

"So far as I am concerned, this is not a personal matter at all. It is solely a question as to whether sufficient appropriations will be made available to carry on the work of this office as required by law."

"The items vetoed by the governor leaves us without funds for such emergencies as Herrin or Rock Island."

GOVERNMENT TO PAY JANKOWSKI CLAIMS

(By The Associated Press)

Estates of Parents of Dead War Hero to Receive Accrued Compensation—Will Secure Administrator for Estate, Which Goes to Three Heirs

A letter was received from Washington yesterday at the local Red Cross office, stating that the accrued compensation of more than $1,000 which should have gone to the parents of Jan Jankowski, will be paid to the estate. Jankowski was a soldier in the World War and was killed in action on the Champagne front. Owing to the fact that there was another man by the same name in the service, no government continued to assert that Jankowski was still alive, until recently when letters sent from the Red Cross office here convinced the Veterans' Bureau of its error.

Jankowski's parents perished from want, hunger, in Lithuania, while the compensation payments due from the United States government on the account of their son's service accumulated at Washington. It was not known whether the government would pay this money to the heirs, but this has not been made known to the estate. Walter Jankowski of this city and Raymond, also an American citizen, and a younger sister in Lithuania survive and are the claimants of the estate.

The next step is the appointment of an administrator for the Jankowski estate, a matter which must be handled by the local Red Cross office. Mrs. Sullivan, the Red Cross secretary, will take up the matter with the Lithuanian consul in Chicago, and perhaps later with the American consul in Lithuania, and will in the course of a few months secure the appointment of an administrator to whom the government will pay the accrued compensation.

A THOUGHT

There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labor.—Eccles., 2:24.

MAN hath his daily work of body or mind appointed, which declares his dignity; while other animals unactive range, and of their doings God takes no account.—Milton.

Press dispatches yesterday said that road conditions are very bad in southern Illinois because of continued rains. Wouldn't it be grand and glorious to have such bad conditions existing here in Morgan county?

Lord Northcliffe in a recent magazine article is described as a man whose forceful, dominating personality continues even though he has passed on. Lord Northcliffe directed that his widow should marry a certain man and she has obediently carried out the instructions.

Senator Beveridge said yesterday that the orator to be effective should not rage around and pound the table. "Don't parade up and down the platform like a crazed panther," he said, and his own compelling oratory gave the proof of his axiom.

If the plans of the park board are carried out at Galesburg, the work on the construction of a nine hole municipal golf course will begin early this summer. Galesburg is undertaking this project after learning of the great activity on the golf courses of a number of the larger cities of the state.

Jacksonville cannot be included in the list of larger cities, but it is worth remembering that the municipal golf grounds here have been in use for, these many years.

GOOD EATING

(NEA)

Something new to eat is invented in France and served at the Hundred Club, a famous organization of gourmets. Tony Girod, chef at the Cafe de Paris, originated this new mouth-waterer which has a name as long as a yardstick.

Tony served his latest creation at a banquet given to the mayor of Dijon on the eve of that official's departure for Canada to preach the merits of Burgundy wines. (Thirsty Americans will wonder why a missionary is needed.)

Now, ladies, if you want to surprise pa Sunday with Tony Girod's latest delicacy, here's all you have to do:

"Bake in the oven large peeled potatoes weighing at least a pound apiece. Cut them open in a snuff-box shape and hollow out the pulp till they are almost shell-like. On the other hand, prepare a fine Bechamel sauce with two soup-spoons of finely grated narmesan cheese and half a pound of butter. Whip these into a cream away from the fire and add some mushroom sauce.

"Pour this cream into each potato and then add two delicately rolled fillets of sole poached in WHITE WINE, a scallop cut in pieces, some shrimps, and some browned morril mushrooms. Cover with cream and then pass through a hot oven (the food, not yourself). Serve each potato with a shelled lobster's claw and a thinly sliced truffle on top."

Well, if that's too complicated, give pa roast chicken. And the best stuffing for a roast chicken, according to Mme. Yvon, the queen of French cooks, is made by this recipe:

"Season with black pepper, sage and basil savory and sweet marjoram mint, wild thyme and parsley. Soak the stuffing in port wine and truffles for 48 hours. Spread over the chicken a gravy produced by simmering the carcasses of the birds in a fine veal consommé, to which has been added port wine and Armagnac. If you want to convert this into a pot-pie, use a thin top crust and roof it with port wine jelly."

The gourmets of the Hundred Club are still smacking their lips. O shucks! What's the use? Pa probably would turn up his nose at the unfamiliar mess and grumble that he'd rather have plain chicken or a roast of beef—or even ham and eggs.

Pa usually is thoughtless, rarely occurs to him to praise and flatter the meals that his wife has slaved to produce in the sweltering hot kitchen. Of course, he shows his appreciation by over-eating, and tolerant ma is content.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

On With the Dance

By Berton Braley

SOME solemn folks chorus, "There's stern work before us,
The world's in a terrible state;
We've no time for laughter, we've got to get after
The business of setting things straight.
Cut out the romancing, the singing and dancing
Which people pursue with such vim;
They're most deleterious; we must be serious—
Serious, dogged and grim!"

CO, column by column, we're warned to be solemn;
But though it's a worrisome world
Which isn't behaving and badly needs saving
From dangers in which it is swirled,
Still we and our neighbors can lighten our labors
With song and with jazz now and then;
Conditions are fearful but we can be cheerful
While building things over again.

FAR better be singing and dancing, than wringing
Our hands in a futile despair,
Our job may appall us but that needn't thrall us
In clouds of perpetual care;
Our tasks on us levy a toll that is heavy
But still to our work we advance;
With vim we go to it and smile while we do it
And pause—now and then—for a dance.

Afterthought: Pa might raise the roof if he knew that so much good wine had been "wasted" in cooking Tony's and Yvon's choice delicacies.

WOODSON SCHOOL HAD PICNIC FRIDAY

Children Had Picnic Dinner and Outing at Nichols Park Here—Other News from Woodson

Woodson, May 4.—The Woodson school came to a close Friday and in honor of the day the children were given a picnic. A fine dinner was served at noon in the basement of the Christian church, about 130 being present for this important feature. After dinner, eleven car loads of children and a number of the parents were taken to Nichols Park in Jacksonville, where several hours were spent with games and contests of various kinds. Later the children were given a treat of ice cream by their teachers, Miss Ruth Mellor and J. Chester Colton.

It is a source of general regret that J. Chester Colton has decided to discontinue school work for an indefinite period. Mr. Colton has served as principal of the Woodson school for the past five terms and his services have been highly valued. The Woodson people are glad to know that Miss Mellor, whose home is at Murrayville, is to return for the next term.

Another School Closes

Central Point school two miles east of Woodson closed Friday and the children and their parents and friends enjoyed an all day picnic at the school. A fine dinner was served at noon, a big crowd being present to enjoy the dinner and the program which came afterward.

Winners in the various contests were Mrs. Joe Megginson, Miss Helen Walsh, Miss Helen Crain, Mary Katherine Haire, Mary Ellen Loneragan, Rosalyn Loneragan, Irene Orris, Clyde Smith, Walter Virgan and Loraine Rawlings.

Among those in attendance at the picnic were Miss Katherine Hines of Jacksonville, Mrs. Oren Butler, Mrs. Wendell Dugger and Mrs. Ray Wolkoff of Scottville, Mrs. Carl Hombrough of Asbury, The arrangements for the day were made by the teacher, Miss Marguerite Steinmetz and it was an occasion which all present warmly enjoyed.

P. T. A. Officers Named

A meeting was held in the basement of the Christian church Friday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers for the Parent-Teacher association of Woodson. President—Mrs. Jack Steinmetz.

Vice president—Mrs. Fred Kilner.

Secretary—Mrs. Louise Henry.

Treasurer—Mrs. J. T. Self.

News Notes

LANDSCAPE WORK AT DIAMOND GROVE BEGUN

Cemetery Commission Plans Extensive Improvements to Beautiful Grounds—250 Shrubs Set Around Service Buildings Friday by Expert Gardeners.

The first step in extensive improvements to be made in Diamond Grove cemetery was taken yesterday when landscape gardeners from Starks Brothers Nursery of Louisiana, Mo., set some 250 ornamental shrubs. The Cemetery commission, consisting of C. H. Russell, chairman, P. V. Coover, C. Y. Rowe, Mrs. Linda Ayers and W. E. Boston, is planning to beautify the cemetery, develop the new addition, change the location of buildings, and plant hedges of shrubbery around parts that cannot be otherwise beautified.

There has been a great demand among the thousands of property holders who own lots in the cemetery, for extensive landscaping. The Commission has embarked upon a definite plan and, with the aid of skilled landscape gardeners, will endeavor to make Diamond Grove cemetery the most attractive spot in the city.

The service buildings have already been moved from the front of the cemetery grounds to the low ravine where they can be screened from view by shrubbery. The hedge surrounding these buildings was set yesterday. It consists of several varieties of shrubs: Rose of Sharon, Lombardy poplars, red-bush honeysuckle, cut-leaf Staghorn sumac, tamariske and Japanese snowball.

The next step will be the removal of the cemetery yard office from its present location to a more secluded spot some distance north. This is part of the plan to remove from view all service buildings in the grounds so far as possible.

The third division of the plan comprehends the screening of the state burial grounds in the northwest corner of the cemetery with a hedge of ornamental shrubbery. These shrubs will be set next fall. There is much valuable property surrounding the state grounds and many beautiful monuments. The hedge will be set just outside the boundary of the state grounds and will completely screen them from the rest of the cemetery.

Another important part of the plan is the landscaping of the new addition recently joined to the cemetery on the west. The Commission purchased this acreage about a year ago, but it has been under cultivation as farm land until now. Landscape gardeners will be set to work on this land and it will be laid out in new plots, roads constructed and shrubbery planted, before it is sold as lots.

It is also expected to greatly beautify the entrance to the cemetery and make a park surrounding the gate and in the immediate vicinity of the main drive. The landscape gardeners will return in June to continue their work and will make some of the improvements mentioned above.

The cemetery commission has recently completed an accurate record of every foot of ground in Diamond Grove. A register of all property holders and complete data on the lots and graves has been conveniently arranged according to an approved system, modeled after that used in the Roshill Cemetery in Chicago.

MURRAYVILLE WOMAN
PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY

Death of Mrs. Mary Rimbe Occurred as Result of Apoplexy Friday Morning—Funeral to Be Held Tomorrow

The death of Mrs. Mary Rimbe, a well known resident of Murrayville, occurred at about 10:30 o'clock Friday morning. Mrs. Rimbe was alone in the house at the time of her death, her lifeless body being found when her granddaughter, Alice Rimbe, came to spend the day with her grandmother.

The deceased was found seated in a chair with her hands in a pan of dough which she was kneading when stricken by the fatal illness. The granddaughter, who was summoned by Mrs. Harry Cade, whose home is just across the street, Mrs. Cade found upon examination that life was extinct.

Coroner C. A. Rose was summoned and held an inquest at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, the following jury being empaneled: John Wild, N. C. Carlson, Reese Jones, Garvin Brewbaker, Monroe Jennings and Ralph Withee, clerk.

The only witnesses examined were Mrs. Cade and the granddaughter and after hearing their testimony the jury returned a verdict indicating that death was due to apoplexy.

Mrs. Rimbe was born Feb. 15, 1856, the daughter of Allen and Evelyn Hughes. Her early life was spent on a farm east of Murrayville and in young womanhood she was united in marriage to Robert Rimbe, who survives together with one son, W. B. Rimbe, of near Murrayville.

The deceased was a member of the Murrayville M. E. church of the Ladies' Aid. She was a woman of kindly spirit and was held in high regard in the community in which her entire life had been spent.

The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Murrayville M. E. church, in charge of Rev. W. C. Harms. Burial will be made in Murrayville cemetery.

THE C. AND A. ROAD AND THE GROUP PLAN

Mr. S. G. Lutz, Chief Traffic officer, representing the Receivers at the general hearing held at Washington, D. C. in connection with the proposed consolidation designated as System No. 18 which included the Chicago & Alton, St. Louis-San Francisco, St. Louis Southern, Missouri-Kansas-Texas, and certain other short-line roads.

Mr. Lutz testified in brief that the receivers were not seeking or suggesting a consolidation with any line or lines. That the Receivers had in view certain improvements of the Alton's property and they were thoroughly convinced the Alton could be made to pay its way and adequately serve the public it was built to serve on basis of any rate, freight and passenger, that would maintain the roads in its territory as a whole.

That the Alton was splendidly located geographically, reaching as it does the four large commercial centers of Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City & Peoria, having splendid terminal facilities at each point and serving as a bridge for a large volume of through traffic, particularly traffic to and from the great southwest and also serving locally a very dense territory generally and reaching one of the largest coal districts in Illinois.

That its favorable location had resulted in the Alton being the most dense freight and passenger traffic line of any road in the west and that its business could be still further greatly increased upon the completion of certain improvements and facilities which the Receivers had in mind.

That if there was to be a forced consolidation then properly the Alton should be allied with one of the two southwestern groups, either the Chicago-Missouri-Pacific (System No. 19) or the Frisco-Katy-Cotton Belt (System No. 18) as suggested by the committee.

That as shown in the basic data submitted, the natural flow of freight traffic with the Missouri Pacific, Kansas City Southern and an alliance with the Missouri Pacific, Kansas City Southern would give the combination a good line between St. Louis and Kansas City and shorten by 75 miles the haul to Chicago and the east via Chicago or other Illinois junctions on all traffic moving via the Kansas City gateway originating the Kansas City Southern or the Missouri Pacific west of Kansas City.

On the other hand the natural flow of passenger traffic is considerably greater between the Alton and Frisco-Katy-Cotton Belt than the other combination and this would be materially increased if the Frisco is finally permitted to purchase or control the International & Great Northern.

That a combination of the Alton with the Frisco-Katy-Cotton Belt would result in a short line between Chicago and the southwest via Highbee, Missouri, a junction point between the Alton and the Katy, via which junction a considerable volume of traffic has moved in the past; it would result in giving the combination good terminal facilities on both sides of the river in the St. Louis-East St. Louis district, but to make this proposed alliance practicable the Cotton Belt should remain intact and not be divided by transferring the line north of Brinkley, Arkansas, to the Rock Island. This would not only divert much important traffic, particularly lumber from the combination, but would greatly weaken the Cotton Belt System financially.

Furthermore, the Katy should not be segregated at New Franklin, Missouri as suggested by Prof. Ripley, but should retain its line to St. Louis as in that manner the building of slight additional mileage from New Franklin to a point connecting with the Alton would give the combination a fairly good line between St. Louis and Kansas City, whereas to follow the recommendation of Professor Ripley, no provisions having been made to continue the operation of Alton trains over the Burlington, a long and disadvantageous route between St. Louis and Kansas City as compared with the Missouri Pacific combination would result.

Mr. Lutz declined to commit the Receivers as to which one of the proposed southwestern systems the Alton should properly be allied with, leaving that question and such further comments as the Receivers might desire to make to be discussed at a further hearing before the Commission on the question of the consolidation.

Therefore, at this time, I wish to say that it is my view if there is to be a forced consolidation of railroads that the proper alliance of the Alton is with the Frisco-Katy-Cotton Belt, known as System No. 18, but with the understanding that these roads will be left intact as suggested by Mr. Lutz.

I also wish to take this occasion of expressing my views on the proposed forced consolidation scheme as a whole.

At the time the 1920 Transportation Act was passed, and which embodied in it the proposal for an eventual consolidation of all the railroads of the country in a few great systems, conditions generally were very much disturbed as the outgrowth of the war; the roads were being returned from Federal control in far worse condition than they were taken over by the Government.

It was, of course, recognized

Floyd Pevey Celebrates Ninth Birthday by Entertaining Friends at Party—Other News from Literberry

Literberry, May 4.—Friday was the ninth birthday of Floyd Pevey son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pevey, and the day was very appropriately celebrated by a party at the Pevey home one-half mile west of Literberry. There were twenty-two present and games of various kinds made up a very enjoyable program. Dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon, a large birthday cake with nine candles being an important part of the refreshments.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Warren Daniels, Mrs. Everett Lair, Mrs. Earl Rexroat and Miss Claudine Ratliff.

News Notes
The Literberry school closed Thursday and an all day picnic was held at the school house. An elaborate picnic dinner was served at noon, a great many of the parents of the children being present for the dinner and for the program of games and contests which filled the afternoon hours.

Prof. Hagan and Miss Margaret Chapman, who have served as teachers at the Literberry school for the past term, are to teach the coming term. This fact is a gratification to the community in general, as both have given excellent service.

Mrs. Taylor Berry, mother of Mrs. A. Ratliff of Literberry, is quite ill at her home here. The Literberry Shipping association is quite busy these days, having shipped two cars of hogs to the St. Louis market in recent days, and a third car is to go forward Monday. Earl Rexroat is the manager of the association and looks after its affairs with commendable zeal.

Mrs. Harry Petefish, who has been seriously ill at the home of Mrs. Harry Ogle for some time past, has so far recovered as to be able to return to her home in Literberry. Her son, Harold Petefish, is now confined to the house with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Alden Earl Rexroat, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rexroat, has an unusual school record. In

WHITE HALL PLANS COMMUNITY EVENT

Will Be Patterned After May Day Program—Citizens Look Over Proposed Highway—White Hall News Notes

White Hall, May 4.—Harry L. Winn has been up from St. Louis all week, arranging for his removal to that city, where he is making good as advertising specialist with a large general printing house. He addressed the Ben Franklin club on the subject of advertising just before leaving the city for White Hall to make final arrangements as to disposition of his local plant, which becomes part of the equipment of Gregory Farm office. This affords some conception of the growth of the advertising magnitude of White Hall industries, of which Winn is a product. A $512 snapper will soon be installed in the postoffice for the issuance of the daily forecast cards for the more than fifty post-offices that are served the daily weather forecast from the White Hall distributing office at the local postoffice.

Community Event Planned
Frank Henderson has been occasionally displaying a relic of unusual interest since there became local interest along that line, and his latest is a small volume entitled "Columbian Orator," a sort of text book for students of language and oratory published in 1815, and containing some of the great orations of record. He also possesses a "New American Speaker" of 1823. Mr. Henderson and V. C. Anderson are considering a gala event on White-side park for the pleasure of everybody without the least tinge of mercenary motive if the business houses can be induced to close for it. It is to be patterned along the line of the evening program of May Day that is still a leading topic of interest all over this section because of the great measure it proved to be to such a vast gathering of people.

Look Over Roadway
A delegation of representative citizens of White Hall made a tour of the proposed road east from White Hall Thursday, and the proposition has become a live matter with the findings. There are two routes under consideration, one through a more central section of the Gregory ranch and the other at the north end. The northern route is the one that meets with the favor of the ranch people, and they offer to grant all necessary right of way for it. The other route is the one desired in a more general way, but that route will not be feasible until the drainage and reclama-tion work through Apple Creek bottom is a reality. The net result is that the subject will await developments as to the new Apple Creek drainage district.

Placing the Blame

By CLARA DELAFIELD

It was Bill's first job. He was office boy in the offices of the Langerman-Singer corporation, and mightily proud of it. "You bet I'll rise," he told his mother. "I'm going right up the ranks to president, like Mr. Langerman did."

Langerman was in an ill humor that morning. There had been trouble with an important customer over a bill. Certain items had been disallowed. Langerman sent for the manager.

"Now, what's all this trouble with the Bateson people?" he demanded. "We can't afford to affront our oldest customers over a matter of $200. We should have taken those items off the account. I expect you to have more practical judgment than that, Smith."

Smith, the manager, sent for the head of the interior agency.

"See here, Rowland," he said, "what's all this difficulty with the Bateson people about? The old man's been giving me the devil, I don't interfere with the devil. I don't expect you to have a little common sense in dealing with our oldest customers, even if they aren't our largest ones."

"Mr. Smith, you told me—" "Never mind what I told you. This sort of thing has got to stop. Don't let it happen again, that's all."

Rowland went off stuttering with fury and summoned his staff.

"Who handled that Bateson business?" he demanded.

"I did, Mr. Rowland," said a pale-faced, middle-aged man.

"Oh, yes, it looks like one of your folk, doesn't it?" Campbell started Rowland. "You know what's going to come of it? The Bateson people are ripping mad, and as like as not we'll lose our oldest customers."

"I'm sorry," said Campbell abjectly. "I thought—"

"I don't care what you thought," shouted Rowland. "What's the use of my having a staff if they can't be trusted to handle a little business item without my supervision? You make me sick, the whole pack of you. Smith's been giving me the devil, and I told you expressly to pull me up if anything wasn't quite ship-shape."

"But you dictated that letter to me, Mr. Campbell," protested Miss Turnbull. "How was I to know it wasn't all right?"

"Oh, you make me sick, all of you!" snorted Campbell. "You're the finest collection of flatheads I've ever hit on. Oh, for God's sake, don't start howling here! We're all in the soup. Just do the best you can in the future, Miss Turnbull."

Miss Turnbull went off wiping her eyes. "I'm through, Sadie," she said to the head of the stenographers' department.

"What do you mean, Lizzie? You aren't leaving us?"

"Leaving? Well, I should say I am leaving. That old Campbell has been saying things to me that no girl can be expected to stand for. How am I to know whether he's making a break or not when he's dictating a letter?"

"Oh, take it easy, take it easy, Lizzie," answered the other. "We've all been through the mill."

"Well, you're not going to put me through that mill again, that's all," said Lizzie. "If I stay on here, you don't send me in to Mr. Campbell again. Why, that man isn't fit to look any decent lady in the face, he's that crabbed and cranky!"

"Well, I think you might kind of remember I sent you in there because I wanted to put you in line for promotion," said Sadie frostily.

"Oh, keep your old promotion," said Lizzie.

Sadie fussed and fumed and rang her bell.

"Bill," she said, when the office boy appeared, "how often am I to tell you to take the letters out of the basket as soon as it's full! Just look at that!"

"Why, I was in here ten minutes ago and it was empty!" Bill protested.

"Now, don't you talk back to me, because I won't have it! You take those letters and keep your mouth shut, or you'll be slated for another job mighty quick!"

Bill took the letters sullenly.

"Nope, mum, I dunno what makes them such a lot of old cranks in the office," he said that night. "But I'm going right up the ranks to president like Mr. Langerman did."

12 MORGAN COUNTY BOYS AT MAYWOOD

Report of Red Cross Secretary at Meeting Last Night Shows 139 Cases During Past Month—Ex-Servicemen in Federal Hospital Want Home Paper

The regular meeting of the executive committee of the Red Cross was held Friday evening in the headquarters at the library. The secretary, Mrs. Catherine Sullivan, made her usual report. It was learned that there are more than twelve Morgan county ex-servicemen now in the Federal hospital No. 76 at Maywood, Ill. Among those at this government hospital are: Albin McElhannon, Claude Baird, Thomas Uzzel, George Young, Wilbur Ribelin, William Hoback of Waverly, Otha Allen of Mercedosa, and Luther Burke.

Mrs. Sullivan reported 139 cases handled by the local Red Cross this month past. Twenty-eight of these were private cases, and 111 from Jacksonville and the state hospital. The secretary made two visits to Mercedosa, two to Franklin and one to Waverly, to see disabled ex-servicemen and aid them in securing adjustment of their claims.

The local secretary of the Red Cross also endeavors to keep in touch with the Morgan county boys at Maywood and other government hospitals. A request has come from this particular hospital that the home paper be sent to the boys, as there are so many of them there and they would like to keep in touch with the events of their home county.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel, but to cure them with a harmless substitute.

The pleasant little tablets do the work that calomel does, but have no bad after-effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brains and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c

S. T. ZACHARY ASKS FOR NEW TRIAL

In the circuit court at Winchester Friday motion for a new trial was entered in behalf of Samuel T. Zachary, found guilty of manslaughter. It is understood that the motion for a new trial is based upon the admission of the evidence that Luther Crawford a few hours before his death said "I begged the old man not to shoot me any more." The defense claims that this was not properly a dying declaration and should not have been admitted in evidence.

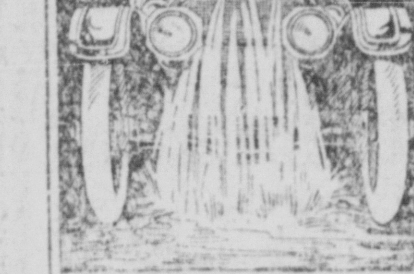

Judge Smith has not designated the time or place for hearing the argument. If the motion is denied then the defendant will be in the custody of the sheriff.

Daniel Dietrick was a visitor from Concord yesterday.

DEATHS

Hayden

Death came peacefully to Mrs. Edwin Hayden, at the family residence, 232 Park street, at 2:05 o'clock Friday morning, after having been an invalid for the past two years. She had been in an unconscious condition for twenty-four hours.

Deceased was born in Lynnvill, December, 1834, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hills, pioneer residents of that vicinity. Her maiden name was Sarah Jane Hills. Her early education was received in the Lynnvill schools, and in 1850 she became a student in the Jacksonville Female Academy. Having always a taste for melody ever brought to this country.

In 1854, she was married in Lynnvill to Edwin Hayden. They lived in Perry, Pike county for a short time and then came to Jacksonville, where she resided the remainder of her life.

At the age of eighteen, she joined the Christian church at Lynnvill where her membership remained until after her marriage, when she transferred her membership to the First Baptist church where her husband was a member. At the time of her death she was the oldest living member of that church. As long as her strength permitted, she was a tireless worker in church affairs. Mrs. Hayden was known among all of her acquaintances as a real Christian woman, who was devoted to her home and family, willing to make any sacrifice for their comfort. She was widely known for her unselfishness, charity, and willingness to help others at all times. Her tastes were simple, and a peaceful nature was one of her great virtues. During all of the time she was an invalid, her consideration for others, and the patience which she exhibited, never complaining, but accepting her suffering as inevitable, were a great comfort to her two daughters, Miss Hattie Hayden and Miss Abbie Hayden, with whom she made her home.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. George Dietrick of Concord, and Misses Hattie and Abbie Hayden, at home. She also leaves four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, two sons, Thomas M. and James E., one sister and two brothers.

Facts About Minerals for HOGS

Both scientific and practical scale tests show beyond question that hogs need a mineral supplement to their ration. The big problem is to select the right kind of a mineral mixture. Here are seven facts that will help you do this:

- Fact 1. There is fully as much difference between the effect of the best scientific mineral mixture made and the cheap preparations, as there is between the crop raised on the richest of fertile soil and that raised on the poorest spot of this land you have ever seen.
- Fact 2. A mineral mixture must be made very largely of minerals for building bone, making good blood and solid flesh—not chiefly a mixture of medicines with a few minerals added.
- Fact 3. In addition to supplying an abundance of minerals, there should be four definite results accomplished: (1) Relieve and prevent constipation. (2) Prevent the accumulation of worms. (3) Maintain perfect digestion. (4) Because it is most profitable to market hogs at the earliest date, special ingredients should be included to aid in putting flesh on rapidly.
- Fact 4. There is abundant practical evidence that a mixture made of equal parts, salt, ashes, and coal is a positive injury to hogs and never a benefit. Salt in such a proportion with any mixture is very apt to be harmful. Coal in any proportion is constipating and damaging to the intestines.
- Fact 5. The ingredients in a mineral mixture must be in exactly the correct proportion to each other. Nothing but the most careful and long-continued tests will determine this.
- Fact 6. The ingredients themselves must be of the right grade and quality. If inferior ingredients are used the question of formula is of no consequence. Unless the minerals are of the right grade they will pass through the animal undigested. Obviously such minerals will do no good—they are absolutely worthless.
- Fact 7. In order to get uniform results a mineral mixture must be uniformly mixed. The mixing of minerals is far more difficult than the mixing of grains or liquids. The weight of the different mineral ingredients varies greatly, hence they separate readily. This separation is very hard to detect. You can't get paying results from a few cheap minerals carelessly thrown together.

These facts constitute a Code of Honor for the oldest and largest concern today engaged in manufacturing a mineral mixture for hogs—the MoorMan Mfg. Co. Moorman's Mineral Mixture meets every requirement of the above rigid specifications. It is the last word in mineral mixture perfection.

All of the above facts have been worked out and verified in our own privately operated experiment station. It is the largest mineral mixture experiment station in the United States. The results of its research work, both practical and scientific, may be depended on absolutely.

DEMPSEY SIGNS TO MEET GIBBONS

Champion Will Receive $300,000 for His Share—Gibbons Takes Chance on Crowd.

CHICAGO, May 4.—(By A. P.) Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will receive $300,000 for risking his title against Tom Gibbons, the St. Paul challenger in a 15 round contest to a decision at Shelby, Montana, July 4, while Gibbons will gamble with the promoters for his share of the receipts.

This revealed tonight when all obstacles for the match were overcome to the satisfaction of the promoters, and the fight between the two champions. Kearns will receive $100,000 in cash tomorrow as a first installment of the three hundred thousand guarantee and will attach his signature to the articles closing the match.

Under the terms of the contract Dempsey will receive the second $100,000 June 15 and will receive the final $100,000 July 2 forty eight hours before going into the ring.

Gibbons will not receive a cent of the receipts until the first $300,000 is in the box office. He will receive 50 percent of all money over this amount until the $600,000 mark is reached. After this figure is reached the challenger will receive 25 percent of all over $600,000 and also will be given 25 percent of the moving picture rights, in addition to $2,500 for training expenses. Dempsey has been allowed $10,000 to cover his training expenses. The only angle preventing the signing of the articles today was the releasing of the first installment of money deposited in a Chicago bank by the Montana promoters. Lloyd Molumby, representing the promoters, was in the long distance telephone conversation with bankers in Great Falls, Montana, who agreed to release the money tomorrow, providing Kearns arranged for $100,000 bond guaranteeing Dempsey's appearance in the ring July 4th.

Kearns was negotiating for this bond tonight and hoped to have it ready tomorrow so the articles could be signed.

Eddie Kane, manager of Gibbons arranged to post a $25,000 forfeit guaranteeing Gibbons' fulfillment of the contract.

The referee situation, which caused debate that threatened to be serious, was adjusted to the satisfaction of Kane, who protested Kearns selection of Jimmie Daugherty, of Philadelphia.

Kearns plans to leave for New York to close some business affairs and then go to Salt Lake City to start Dempsey on his training campaign. The title holder, according to Kearns, already has started light training. Kearns said Dempsey would not weigh over 182 pounds when he goes into the ring, while Eddie Kane said Gibbons expects to scale around 178 pounds. The challenger plans to make a short theatrical tour before settling down to strenuous grind of training.

Deposits made in our Savings Department during the first ten days of May will bear interest from the first of May.

QUIMET WINS ST. GEORGE'S CUP

SANDWICH, England, May 4 (By A. P.)—Francis Ouimet of Boston, who has been both amateur and open champion of the United States, today added to his golfing glory the most prized possession in all the world for individual amateur medal play—the St. George's challenge cup.

By the margin of a single stroke he defeated his compatriot Dr. O. F. Willing, of Portland, Oregon, with whom he had tied in the regular 36 hole stroke competition on Wednesday and Thursday with a score of 123. Today Ouimet took 77 and Dr. Willing 78 to cover the course over the Sand Dunes on which, a year ago, another American, Walter Hagen, won the British open championship.

Dr. Willing made a courageous effort to tie Ouimet again today at the home hole when he used all his skill in an effort to sink a chip shot of 36 feet, and failed only by 3 inches. The westerner never got in the lead, but he was in the fight every second until that last shot which thrilled the gallery as it rolled straight for the cup and came to a slow disheartening stop less than the length of a finger from the cup.

The sure, steady Ouimet, flailing the ball with fine precision, always set the pace—a pace that Willing, with less punch and accuracy in his hard strokes, found it difficult to follow. But on the short approaches, and especially on the greens the Oregonian got his opportunity to catch up by delicate and careful manipulations of the clubs. Of this he took every advantage.

Five times he sank his first putt, while the Boston star needed at least two on every hole but one, and three on two of these. In this way the westerner, unaltered in his dogged attempt to keep up with his brilliant pace maker succeeded in doing so almost until the end.

Veteran golfers who followed the match under the dazzling sun all agreed that they had never seen a tenser play off. Willing simply would not let go, although twice during the match Ouimet was two strokes ahead.

FAMOUS MANAGERS HAVE DEFINITE IDEAS ON BASE RUNNING

(By NEA Service)
NEW YORK.—"Baseball needs more base-running," says Ty Cobb, "and my club is going to try to supply it this year."

The baseball fans wanted more hitting and they got it. Hitting was produced by the elimination of freak deliveries and the introduction of a livelier ball.

These two elements made for more base hits and runs. Then along came Babe Ruth with the ability to hit more home runs than any player in captivity. The fans went wild over Ruth.

Ruth's favor with the fans, through the medium of home-run hitting, created a new craze, and every ball player sought to hit them over the fence.

This era of swat naturally eliminated base-running, one of the biggest thrills in the game. With clubs getting runs in clusters of from four up, it was rather foolish for a team to play the running game, which in a sense is a one-run idea.

If reports from the south are true, Cobb intends to revive base-running. With a team noted for its hitting ability and having none too much speed to boast of, it would seem that there was a catch somewhere in the rumor that the Tigers are going to run wild on the bases.

"It is to be regretted that base-running is suffering because of the batting fever," says John McGraw, famous manager of the New York Giants.

"I still like fast teams and I want them to run, but I insist they confine their speed to the hit and run, attempting to stretch hits, and taking advantage of any misuses of the opposition, rather than revert to the stolen-base idea. Just at present that is an antique manner of getting runs."

ILLINOIS COLLEGE WILL MEET CARTHAGE

Illinois college will meet Carthage college here this afternoon at 2 o'clock, in a dual track and field meet.

The local college will be represented in the following events as follows: 100 yard dash. Walker and Martin; 220 yard dash. Walker and Martin; mile run. Itman; quarter mile run. Weaver and Johnson; half mile run. Schroeder and Kimmel; high jump. Hatfield and Cecil Martin; pole vault. Hatfield and McBride; running broad jump. Dale and John Martin; relay. Weaver, Schroeder, Rogers and Johnson; shot put. Mellon and Dale; discus. Mellon and Dahlman; javelin. Mellon and Walker.

The Illinois boys expect a real contest, but entertain the belief the Old Illinois will win out.

FOUR HOME RUNS FEATURE CONTEST

Cleveland Gets One and St. Louis Three of Them—McManus Has Run-in with Umpire; Is Banished

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 4.—Four home runs featured today's game between St. Louis and Cleveland which the Browns won, 9 to 5. Ken Williams made his sixth circuit drive of the season, driving in Foster and Jacobs ahead of him in the seventh inning. Durst, who followed, also put the ball over the right field wall, duplicating his feat of the previous inning.

In the first inning Speaker hit the first home run of the season on the local ground, sending Wamby home ahead of him.

Durst broke into the game when McManus was banished in the fourth inning for arguing with Umpire Hildebrand when the latter called him out at the plate. It appeared in the press box that McManus had struck at the umpire, but Hildebrand denied this.

TRADING ACTIVE IN BUTTER MARKET

CHICAGO May 4.—Trading was active enough to closely clean up street stocks with the result that the butter market here today continued steady to firm. There was a good demand for the medium to low scores and fair demand for top scores. Very little surplus was carried over. The car market was quiet but there were so few cars on track that the light demand did not result in any weakness. Though the market was firm, real confidence was lacking and all operators cautious.

Market Report

HALTING OF DEMAND
TOPPLES WHEAT PRICES

CHICAGO, May 4.—Halting of demand for wheat resulted from stock market weakness today, and wheat prices toppled down. Wheat closed heavy 3 to 1½c net lower, with July $1.18½ to $1.18 and September $1.16½ to $1.17.

Corn finished unchanged to ½c decline. Oats 3 to ½c off, and provisions at the same as yesterday's finish to a setback of 7c.

Before the influence of breaks in the stock market began to take effect on wheat traders, the price of wheat had an upward tendency helped by an unexpected advance on the Liverpool quotations. Selling of wheat the value of wheat began to shrink when word spread that numerous stock quotations had touched a new low price record for the year. The early gains in the wheat market were soon more than wiped out, and as prices continued to descend a good deal of selling was done by houses that of late have been conspicuous on the bull side.

About the only buying of wheat near the end of the trading session came from speculators who were recent sellers and who were in a position to collect profits.

American sentiment was further emphasized by reports that Minn-apolis flour mills were running at only forty per cent capacity and that flour shipments were much below normal. On the other hand, crop damage advices from parts of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois the result of death of sufficient moisture, were ignored after the course of the stock market put other factors in eclipse.

In the corn market, persistent buying on the part of cash houses helped to uphold values fairly well in the face of the late weakness of wheat. Elevator interests gave some support also to oats.

Provisions were governed more by the fluctuations of grain than by the hog market.

A larger liner may have as many as 163 furnaces.

WE WIN IN WARS BUT NOT DIPLOMACY

This is Senator Beveridge's Statement About America in Address Made Here—The Mission of the U. S. is to Maintain Orderly Freedom.

Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana who was in Jacksonville Friday, is frankly a nationalist. He believes that it is not narrow of or selfish for Americans to be for America first, last and all the time. "God has given this nation the mission," he said, "of substituting and maintaining here a more orderly freedom, a country to which the older countries of the world, when chaos rules, can turn their eyes and take heart."

Senator Beveridge came to the city in company with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Masters, Mrs. DeWitt Palmer Weber, secretary of the state historical library; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Doyle and C. S. Bartolf of Springfield, because Jacksonville is in the Lincoln-Douglas country and he is engaged in the work of writing a book about those two eminent Illinoisans.

Senator Beveridge said it was almost his lot to amuse or entertain and so he preferred rather to discuss matters which may be regarded as of general public concern in these days when efforts are sometimes made to carry the seat, sit out into uncharted seas.

The inability of Americans to cope in matters of diplomacy with England and other older powers is due, he suggested, to the fact that American diplomats do not have the background of hundreds of years of training and education along this particular line.

Senator Beveridge speaks from

knowledge and experience on this subject, for during a part of his public life and since, it has been his fortune to be on terms of friendship with a number of the representatives of foreign nations whose names are household words in the world of diplomacy.

Laws and Treaties
Before entering upon the discussion of the superiority of old world diplomacy the senator laid emphasis upon the importance of treaties and the difference between a treaty and a law. He brought out the thought that this treaty approving power is one of the most serious duties that confronts a senator. He laid special emphasis upon the thought of the difference between a law and a treaty, suggesting that while laws may be changed in the order that they follow the drift of public sentiment, that a treaty once entered into is final and cannot be changed.

It was an address teeming with Americanism and in which the speaker repeatedly gave evidence of his study of national and international affairs, the fineness of his intellect and the brilliancy of his oratory.

At the close of the senator's address C. J. Doyle, president of the Springfield Rotary club spoke briefly. Guests of the day were Dr. F. P. Norbury, M. P. Dunlap, G. R. Poag, C. E. Segner, B. H. O'Connor, H. J. Rodgers, F. H. Rowe, C. Y. Rowe, A. J. Parsons, L. O. Vaught, F. L. Mawson and M. R. Range.

ANNUAL FIELD DAY AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

In addition to the spectacular Health Pageant, May 12th will be a big day in other ways at the Deaf School.

The annual field day will be held, and also a baseball game between the school team and a team from the Missouri school. There will also be an elaborate display of work done by the pupils in the different industrial departments. The girls' display will cover millinery, sewing, cooking, art and photography, while the boys will exhibit work done in cabinet work, mechanical drawing, shoe making and leather repair work, printing and baking.

M. A. Riley was among the visitors from Woodson Friday.

SEARCY WOULD MAKE BOND ISSUE LARGER

Senator from This District Explains His Position on Road Bond Issue Bill.

Senator Earl B. Searcy is strongly in favor of "feeder" roads during the period of years in which the hard road system of the state is under construction. In order to accomplish this and further to provide for further hard road expansion Senator Searcy favors an amendment to the road bond issue bill which will make the figures $150,000,000. Senator Searcy thus outlines his position.

"Already, considerable opposition has sprung up from among the friends of Governor Len Small, in the senate of Illinois, to two proposed amendments that I am going to advance on second reading to the governor's $100,000,000 road bond issue measure. In view of this feeling, I merely want to say, first, that I am going to insist on these amendments, just the same, and second, that I believe if a huge second bond issue is worth passing at all, it is worth putting up to the voters of this state as a bona fide business proposition, and not merely a vote-getting scheme, as now contemplated, by a man who wants to be governor of Illinois again.

"My first amendment will be one raising the amount of the bond issue from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000. My reason for that is that we have found out that the proposed hundred million will fall at least 1,300 miles short of building the mileage contained in the bill even before amendments began to pour in. I am simply taking State Highway Superintendent Frank Sheets' statement, made to the senate roads committee this week, when the bill was reported out upon the floor. I am a member of that committee, and heard the statement. At that meeting, more than 100 miles was added to the governor's routes by members who fairly crowded each other in attaching a few miles here and there to the plan as submitted.

"I have every confidence in Mr. Sheets and his ability to compute figures and mileage. He is not a fellow who goes off half-cocked. I am reliably informed that his estimate of the 1,200 to 1,300 miles shortage is, in reality, very conservative. It may run several hundred miles or more.

First Bond Issue Falls Short
"Now, we are just witnessing the spectacle of having to provide for nearly half again as much money as was originally contemplated in the original $60,000,000 bond issue. Of the $100,000,000 proposed by the governor, one-third will have to be used to finish the first system. Of the original system there are approximately 3,200 miles yet to build. If the governor of Illinois, whoever he may be, can average $60 miles a year or the next four years, he will finish the original system in 1927. Then will come work on the second plan that Governor Small is talking about now.

"If this second proposition is presented on the square and on a sound business basis, there will be no objection to providing funds enough to finish the job, instead of merely starting it.

"Another amendment, and one to my mind, more important, if possible, than the first, is that of the $150,000,000 I propose, ten millions shall be spent in improving side roads and 'feeders.' I feel that if the friends of Governor Small are really inclined to help the farmer and the fellow off the paved routes to his market, there will be no objection to this provision. Whether there is objection or not, I am going to push it just the same.

"In the committee meeting this week, Senator Meen's, the Governor's right hand man in road matters, refused to let the committee consider this 'feeder' road matter. I informed Senator Meen's that the senate, as a whole, most certainly will have an opportunity to consider the matter when the bill gets to second reading next week.

"Here we are, asked to provide funds for a second system of roads when the first is barely one-third complete. If a second plan is worth considering at all, this far in advance, it is worth considering as a material enlargement on the original plan.

"I merely make this statement so that my friends, particularly in Morgan county, will understand what is going on. I am eternally in favor of oiling and improving side roads, along with the concrete main roads. On that proposition, I am going to make my fight."

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT BUNDLE DAY

House-cleaning time and "Bundle Day" are good times to "help" the needy in the Near East. This is the slogan and challenge call issued by Rev. W. H. Marbach, Near East Relief chairman for Morgan county, assisted by Superintendent, Shafie of the city schools and Mrs. A. B. Williamson, president of Jacksonville Woman's club.

Bundle Day is Wednesday, May 9. Jacksonville will line up with almost all the cities of Illinois to help clothe the orphans and refugees in the Near East.

One million pounds of clothing are needed to save thousands from actual suffering next winter. Bundle Day is the only means by which Near East Relief which is the only organization functioning in Bible lands, can obtain clothing for the unfortunate people America is trying to save.

There are now more than 1,000,000 refugees in the Near East, who are homeless and suffering terrible privations thru no fault of their own. America thru its official charity, Near East Relief, incorporated by Act of Congress, is taking care of 115,000 children in addition to aid in refugee relief.

Locally, the public schools will be used as "Bundle Station" next Wednesday, May 9.

Picked members of the Woman's club will be stationed at the various schools to sort the clothing. Any kind of clothing, men's women's or children's will be acceptable, anything except straw hats and lace dresses.

Later this material will be sent to a central receiving station where it will be baled for shipment.

It is the hope of the committee in charge that at least one freight car of clothing be sent from Jacksonville.

SPEAKER EXPLAINS DEMAND FOR NURSES

Miss Martin of Nursing Education Explains the Increasing Demand for Nurses—Advises Girls that Great Opportunities Lie in Profession

Miss Carol Martin, a representative of the Central Council of Nursing Education, was a recent speaker at the assembly in the local high school, and also at Illinois Woman's college. She gave a very interesting description of the work of the public health nurse in various parts of the United States.

She emphasized the fact that young girls who feel called to enter the nursing profession can now find large opportunities in the public health service, both at home and in foreign countries. There is a crying need for such work in Europe and the countries of the East.

Miss Martin told of visiting the homes of residents of Little Italy in New York City, and of Little Poland, and others of the numerous foreign communities in our large cities. The people are living according to the customs of their native land, many of them without the requisite knowledge of health facts to enable them to keep themselves and their families well.

In these immigration homes, the public health nurse often proves to be the first link that will bind them to America and start the process of Americanization. The people are appreciative of any little kindness received, and for anything which the nurse can do for their sick children. They often offer her a present, such as a valuable family keepsake. The nurse may make the excuse that she will return again and then take the gift with her. If she does not make the expected call, she may find in her mails some morning an odd looking package, containing the gift and an invitation from the family to return and visit them.

Mountain Experience

In the mountain districts of the Blue Ridge, the reception given the health nurse is often entirely different. Miss Martin once went up into the mountains to visit some sick children. The only adequate means of travel in that country was a donkey. After riding thru wild regions, up steep paths and thru mountain valleys for several hours, she saw a thin rift of smoke and headed toward it. Suddenly three tall mountaineers, carrying long rifles confronted her. The quads were leveled in her direction and she was ordered to halt.

The men suspected her of being a revenue officer, and she soon learned that she was in the midst of the moonshine district. She explained her mission, and the men went to one side and talked things over. They finally put her under guard and took her to the mountain village, where they kept close watch of everything she did. When they at last saw that she meant only to help their sick, they ceased to be suspicious. She was able to bring aid to the little cabin homes, and later a teacher became interested in the community and established a mountain school. The people were taught to weave baskets and word carving was introduced.

The moonshine traffic was broken up and the men and women had their efforts directed toward labor and prosperity came to the village. At the foot of the mountain an industrial store was established, where the people who dwell in the hills above could bring their products and sell them at good prices to the tourists who passed along the trail.

Miss Martin told the young girls to enter the right sort of school of nursing. Poor school handicaps a student who wishes to have a high standing in the profession. She advised the high girls to continue in school and graduate before they entered the training school. She stated that the best schools of nursing will not admit students who have not received a high school education and some even require college training.

Deceased was the son of Anders L. Ahlquist and Johanna Petersen Ahlquist. He was born in Varberg, Sweden July 4, 1854, and had lived in this country for forty-eight years. He was married in Jacksonville May 12, 1878 to Miss Anna Wallgren, who died in 1922. He leaves two daughters and six sons: Mrs. G. A. Paugust, Jacksonville, and Mrs. Emma C. Platt, San Antonio, Texas; Alvin Ahlquist, Ewing, Ill.; Victor Ahlquist, Jacksonville; Oscar Ahlquist, Jacksonville; Carl and Walter Ahlquist of Jacksonville, and Louis Ahlquist of Wood River. He also leaves eleven grandchildren. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Anna Wallin, Boston, Massachusetts, and Mrs. Augusta Sandstrom, in Sweden, and two brothers, Carl and Gustav, both of New Britain, Connecticut.

He was a member of Centenary church of this city. For a number of years, he was associated with the Catlin book store on the west side of the square, later entering the grocery business on West State street, under the firm name of Taylor & Ahlquist. Funeral announcements have not yet been made.

NEW TRIAL ASKED IN ZACHARY CASE

Motion for a retrial of Samuel T. Zachary for the killing of Luther Crawford was made in the Scott county circuit court yesterday morning by attorneys for the defense. It is understood that the motion will be based on the supposed dying declaration of Crawford that he begged the old man not to shoot him any more. The defense will argue that Crawford lived several hours after the statement was made. However, the state will offer the argument that Crawford's vision had left him before he made the statement, and that he knew death was near.

The arguments for a new trial will probably be heard sometime next week, tho in what city Judge Smith has not stated. Court will open here soon, and it may be that the motion will be argued in the local courtroom.
